MALIBU—Actor Jack Klugman, known for his role as “-Killer Joe” in the sitcom “The Odd Cou," died on Monday, De- cember 24 at his home in Malibu.

Klugman began his act- ing career with numerous stage productions in the 1950s, but he had a small role in the "-Blackboard" read- er at the Colonial The- atre in Boston. That same year, he had his televi- sion debut in the primetime serial "-Actors Studio." 8 years later in 1952, however, that he made his film debut in "-Golden Boy" as Frank Bonnare.

Klugman starred in a number of classic films such as the Oscar-winning "-12 Angry Men," where he portrayed a role in "-Copp". He remained in the film industry until his death in March 2012. He received his first Primetime Emmy Awards for his guest starring role in "-The Defenders." In 1965, Klugman replaced Walter Matthau in the original Broadway produc- tion of "-The Odd Couple." He reprised the roles in the television adaption of the play of the same name. The series premiered on "-ABC" in 1970 and he continued to contribute to the show in 1974. He also starred in "-Murphy Brown," where he portrayed a role in "-Three Men on a Plane." Klugman married in 1937 to Bettye司 (nee Klugman) and they had two children: David and Edward (Edward later died in 2016). Klugman passed away in the early hours of Monday, December 24 at the age of 90. His wife Bettye司 (nee Klugman) and children David and Edward were by his side when he passed away.

JACK KLUutton DEAD AT 90

JACK KLUutton DEAD AT 90

WHAT’S WESTWOOD’S CRIMES ARE UP

By Kellieann Waldron

WESTWOOD—Crime is up this year for a few of the hot spots in the Westwood community, according to a report from the LAPD’s 7th Division. The report, which covers the period from January 1 to November 30, 2012, highlights an increase in crimes such as larceny, vandalism, and theft.

Despite the city's reputa- tion as one of the safest in the country, the LAPD's 7th Division has seen a notable increase in certain types of crimes and property crimes within the Westwood area. According to LAPD crime statistics, there has been a significant in- crease in larceny from vehicles and thefts from parked vehicles. Two incidents that stand out are the theft of a laptop from a car parked on Sepulveda Blvd and the theft of a backpack from a vehicle parked on La Cienega Blvd.

The report also notes an increase in vandalism, with nine incidents reported in the Westwood area. These incidents include graffiti spray-painted on a wall, a broken window at a local business, and vandalism to a car parked on a city street.

The increase in crime has led to increased concern among the residents of Westwood. Many are calling for increased police presence and more aggressive crime-fighting measures. The LAPD has responded by increasing patrols in high-crime areas and working with community groups to develop strategies to reduce crime.

The report also highlights the importance of community involvement in crime prevention. Residents are encouraged to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the police.

An increase in violent crime has also been noted, with one incident of assault and battery reported in the Westwood area. The LAPD is working with community groups to develop strategies to reduce violence and promote a sense of safety in the community.

Overall, the report serves as a reminder of the ongoing challenge to maintain public safety in Westwood and the importance of cooperation between the police and the community to achieve this goal.

With the help of technology, the LAPD is able to track crime trends and develop strategies to prevent and reduce crime. The department is committed to working with the community to ensure that Westwood remains a safe and secure place to live, work, and play.