Two-year-old attacked by coyote in woodland hills

By Christopher McNichol

WEST HOLLYWOOD—A two-year-old was attacked by a coyote on Friday, February 3, 2023.

The child was playing outside with her family when the coyote ran up to her and started attacking her. The child’s mother, who is a nurse, managed to get the child to safety. She called police who arrived and found the coyote near the area where the attack occurred.

The child was taken to the hospital for medical attention. She is expected to make a full recovery.

The Department of Animal Services is investigating the incident.
